Parliamentary election results in Ireland, 1801-1922

by Brian Mercer Walker
This is the fourth volume in the series of publications ancillary to the ‘New History of Ireland’ and a companion to Walker's later volume ‘Parliamentary Election Results in Ireland 1918-1992’. Together these volumes give the results of every election held at the Dáil, Westminster, Stormont and Strasbourg up to 1992. Packed with core data revealing the minutiae of the Irish electorate, it is a useful resource for any historian of modern Ireland.

About the authors

Brian Mercer Walker

Brian Mercer Walker is Emeritus Professor in the School of Politics, International Studies and Philosophy at Queen’s University Belfast. He has conducted research into nineteenth and twentieth century Irish elections. Professor Walker has edited Parliamentary Election Results in Ireland, 1801-1922 (1978) and Parliamentary Election Results in Ireland 1918-92 (1992).

Related News & Events

The DIB and Century Ireland

On the centenary of the Amritsar Massacre read the DIB entry on Sir Michael O'Dwyer who was Lieutenant Governor of the Punjab in 1919, written by David Murphy.
The DIB and revolutionary women: Charlotte Despard

Kate O'Malley of the Dictionary of Irish Biography will be giving a talk on 'Irish Revolutionary Women and the Wider World' in Muckross House, Killarney on Friday 12 April. She will be looking at the later life of Charlotte Despard. Read Despard's DIB entry by Frances Clarke.
Saint Patrick in the DIB

To celebrate St Patrick's day, we publish the DIB entry on Ireland's patron saint, by Cormac Bourke.

DICTIONARY OF IRISH BIOGRAPHY, DICTIONARY OF MEDIEVAL LATIN FROM CELTIC SOURCES

You might also like

Representing Ireland: 100 years of Irish foreign...
Add to cart

Codices Hibernenses Eximii II: Book of Ballymote
Add to cart

Documents on Irish Foreign Policy Volume XI, 1957...
Add to cart

More maps and texts: sources and the Irish...
Add to cart
Election Data Services provides election results posters and equipment studies. Local Elections in America Project (LEAP) provides statistics on local elections from 1970 through the present. However, geographic coverage is spotty and not all years are available for all elections. America at the polls: a handbook of American presidential election statistics. Federal Returning Officer of the Bundestag provides access to complete results of Bundestag (parliamentary) elections dating back to 1949, including information on the number of registered voters, turnout, and political party vote totals. Data are available both at the national and Land (state) level, in simple web tables.