Appendixes
Barbara T. Mates

Abstract

Special-needs populations are growing. They include patrons who are visually impaired or blind; physically or developmentally disabled; or for whom English is a second language. Mates rethinks the ways we provide information access to accommodate these groups.

Full Text:
PDF

Refbacks

There are currently no refbacks.